

Exodus 1 – 3:10

LESSONS FROM MOSES' REJECTION

1. Sometimes God Allows Rejection When You Take _____ Into Your Own Hands

So he looked this way and that, and when he saw there was no one around, he struck down the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. - Exodus 2:12

Moses had good intentions but he didn't have God intentions.

2. Sometimes God Allows Rejection To Drive You Into A _____ Situation

- It's in the desert that you learn _____

Now Moses was pasturing the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; - Exodus 3:1

- It's in the desert that you learn _____

- It's in the desert that you get set up for an _____ with God

When the LORD saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." - Exodus 3:4

3. Sometimes God Allows Rejection As He Works His Plan In Your _____

"So God sent back the same man his people had previously rejected when they demanded, 'Who made you a ruler and judge over us?' Through the angel who appeared to him in the burning bush, God sent Moses to be their ruler and savior. - Acts 7:35 (NLT)
