A brief review of what we covered this semester:

D) When we looked at deconstructing Christianity, we saw that it is when a person throws out part or all of their Christian faith. Some of the common threads in deconstruction stories included (but not limited to) the following: Questions and doubts were discouraged or dismissed; experienced legalistic form of Christianity; witnessed hypocrisy in family or leaders; or experienced faith rocking trauma. Have you or someone you know experienced one of these or some other similar situation since we looked at this topic of deconstructing Christianity? Please explain.

E) Has there been anything over the last few weeks since we finished the Endgame series that has caused you to think more about end times prophecy?
